

SVCA PARENT AUTHORIZATION FORM

We understand that members may not always be able to accompany their own children to the pool, and many use baby sitters, nannies, or relatives to help care for their children.

This form allows for a parent to designate up to 3 responsible adults to use their card to accompany the member's children to the pool at no additional charge. The undersigned parent hereby designates the individuals below to accompany their children at the pool. The undersigned parent agrees that the Injury Waiver on file applies to their children's use of the pool when accompanied by an authorized designee.

The designee(s) shall:

- Have a completed Injury Waiver on file
- Bring the member's card with them when accompanying the member's children.
- Comply with the same policies and standards applicable to members, and take responsibility for the member's children while at the pool.
